The University of Buckingham and The International Business School will be jointly responsible for ensuring that the standard, quality and rigor in the conduct of the programmes are the same as the programmes conducted at Buckingham. The programmes offered by the International Business School are of the same standard as the programmes conducted at Buckingham. The programmes offered by the International Business School will be subjected to the same academic assurance processes as the programmes offered at the University's home campus in Buckingham.

The University of Buckingham wishes to reaffirm the following administrative arrangement with The International Business School, Budapest:

1. The International Business School will ensure that the students enrolled in the programmes meet the same academic and language entry requirements as students enrolled at Buckingham;
2. The University of Buckingham will give equal recognition to students enrolled at the International Business School as students taking similar programmes at its home campus. All students will receive University of Buckingham transcripts and degree scroll, and graduates from the International Business School will enjoy the same privileges as alumni of the University of Buckingham as graduates from its home campus;
3. The University of Buckingham will issue and confer the degrees to successful graduates of the programmes offered at the International Business School;
4. The University of Buckingham commits to regular and rigorous auditing of the International Business School to ensure the quality of degree programmes being offered are in line with the University policies and requirements.

This agreement between the University of Buckingham and the International Business School, Budapest was signed on 25th May 2012 for an initial period of 5 years.
